All Saints Catholic Church

Dear Sisters and Brothers,

We have walked together for the last 40 days through suffering and death and now we arrive at the celebration of life that cannot be taken from us. Yes, we have been walking with Jesus and his temptations, suffering and death, but our own temptations, sufferings and small deaths are also bound up in the life, death and resurrection of Jesus. We have been re-born! We are no longer in the tomb of sin and death but we are now bearers of light and peace for all to see.

How will we use that newfound freedom we were given so graciously at baptism? Will we remain in our sins? Will we remain selfish, gossipy, seeking our own will no matter what? Or will we allow the spirit of Christ to shine through us and bring light and love and healing wherever we go? That is the challenge-- to live a life that truly reflects the goodness of God or to live in the shadow of our own small existence.

The following poem is from Diarmuid O'Murchu, and Irish priest:

Death's a horizon we passed long ago
On the journey from here to the Cosmos.
We die to be born anew to the Source
Of creation's perpetual engagement.
I've been down that road—I know it too well
With its fears and foreboding concern.
The veil is so thin, between now and then,
One wonders why fear is so rampant.

The Spirit of life and the Spirit of death
Is one and the same intuition.
Our friendships endure and love is secure

In creation's embrace of the infinite.
Yes, I'm always so near, you never need care
Do not be afraid, I've oft spoken.
Relate in deep love and be well assured
The fullness of life's your endowment.

Beware of your stance in creation's great dance,
Remember its basic aliveness.
Do not dominate, control, nor inflate.
Instead, co create with endeavor.
And build up my Reign of justice and love.
Set free all who're trapped in illusion.
And greet each new day with a smile to convey
That you're loved without reserve forever.

May the peace and love of Jesus Christ our risen lord be with you always!

Faithfully,

Father Carl Diederichs

With the help of God, we the members of All Saints Catholic Church:

- Commit to celebrate the Death and Resurrection of Jesus in Word and Eucharist.
- Commit to bring the Good News of Christ to the people of Milwaukee's central city and beyond.
- Commit to work for justice for the poor and the powerless.
- Commit to build up and foster a multi-racial, multi-cultural community of faith, hope and love.

A PROJECT OF THE CHURCH OF THE SAVIOUR

The Choice

The Gospel offers us a choice: We can join Jesus' mission or we can reject it, as the congregation in the Nazareth synagogue did two thousand years ago. We can risk our lives proclaiming the good news to the poor, releasing the imprisoned, giving sight to the blind, offering liberty to the oppressed, and seeking justice, economic conversion, disarmament and the transformation of society. Or--we can respond to Jesus' demand for justice for the poor like the angry crowd: with anger, resentment and violence.

Hypocritically, we can continue to attend religious services while benefiting from systemic injustice, the oppression of the world's poor and the business of war. Through our silent complicity with the world's violence, we can try to kill Christ again.

Donations

We are still in need of donations for our outreach ministries.

1. Cleaning supplies
2. Toiletries
3. Baby Products
4. Non-perishable food items

You can call the parish office if you need more information. Donations can also be dropped off at the office between the hours of 9 a.m. until 3 p.m.

Thank You

Our Bulletin is the place for announcements. In an attempt to cut down on the number of announcements made at the end of mass, we are asking you to make use of the bulletin for all announcements. Please call or submit all announcements by 3PM on Tuesdays. If there are any last minute announcements, we ask that you hand them to the ministers of hospitality before mass. I will make the announcement based on whatever you hand to the hospitality minister. We hope this works for everyone. We can always adjust the plan as time goes on.

Thank You
