All Saints Catholic Church

Dear Sisters and Brothers,

I am happy to report to you that we had another very successful Nomination/Discernment Process. About 24 parishioners met over a three-day period and prayed, studied and learned more about servant leadership. From the twenty-four, four of our members were discerned to be on the Parish Council and one to be our trustee and also a member of the council.

The four members joining our Parish Council are: Vivian McLemore, Sue Owens, Cynthia Donaldson, and Emmanuel Nwachukwu. Our new trustee is Bashaun Wray. She is taking Michael Adams' place. Our current council members are: Harleen Peters, Barbara Hill, Jackie Stone, Clinton Wray, and Didacus Udeoji. Our current trustee is Vida Matthews. Those going off the council are Michael Adams, Marvin Pratt, Pam Johnson and Moira Sennett. I am grateful to them for their great service to All Saints.

Our Finance Committee has also added new members. Jake Keenan and Bashaun Wray have joined David LeCroix, Earnest Daniels, Randy Myricks, Marvin Pratt, Grace Masson, Vida Matthews, and myself. Dan Peter, the Director of Finance and Property at Three Holy Women Church on the eastside continues to provide us with his expertise in matters financial. We are grateful to Dan for his pro bono service to our parish.

For the next two months Robert Spoerl, a seminarian studying for the Archdiocese of Milwaukee will be staying with us. He is currently in the college program at Loyola University in Chicago. His home parish is Mary Queen of Heaven in West Allis. We welcome Bob and we look forward to his ministry at All Saints.

With the approach of the vacation season, I would like to remind you that our church is counting on your financial support even when you are away. Please consider making your gift through the Electronic Funds Transfer Program we have initiated. The forms are in the narthex or can be requested from the church office. Please continue to be generous.

Faithfully,

Only Light

The root of terrorism is misunderstanding, hatred and violence. This root cannot be located by the military. Bombs and missiles cannot reach it, let alone destroy it. Only with the practice of calming and looking deeply can our insight reveal and identify this root. Only with the practice of deep listening and compassion can it be transformed and removed. Darkness cannot be dissipated with more darkness. More darkness will only make darkness thicker. Only light can dissipate darkness.... Those of us who carry the light should show the light and share it so that the world will not sink into total darkness. Everyone has the seed of awakening and insight within his or her heart.

Unity in Christ Fund

Please consider giving 10% of your economic stimulus check to the Unity in Christ Fund. The checks will be out soon. The money was not expected in the family income and budgets. It's a wonderful way to contribute if you have not yet pledged and a way to reach your goal if you have already pledged but have not yet completed the pledge fulfillment.

“His Eye Is On The Sparrow”

On sale now: “His Eye Is On The Sparrow” – a CD of lovely religious solos by Laura Baranyk-Morales, member of All Saints Choir, with piano by Felice Schell.

At $10 each, all proceeds will go to “The Shawn Bost Kidney Fund” to help with donor expenses not covered by insurance. A potential donor is undergoing preliminary testing at this time.

The CD will be offered for sale at All Saints and St. Martin De Porres parishes each Sunday.

Please support the Bost family in this project and pray that Shawn’s search for a donor kidney may be successful!

For more information, call Felice Schell at 262-649-3392.

We are in need of old blankets and men’s ties to help create quilts. We also need volunteers that might want to help create quilts.

Human Concerns Corner

The following places are good places to work and hire on a regular basis.

Milwaukee County-Go to the County’s Human Resource Department. 901 N. 9th St., 2nd Floor. There are 4 bulletin boards of job postings. Ask the human resources office for the job title you are interested in. They do not accept resumes. Some of the postings include lifeguards, snack bar employees, Administrative Assistants, Secretarial Assistants, Accountants, Nurses, Word Clerks. Check the boards each week for postings.

Pick-Save -Go to the East Point Pick-N-Save on the corner of Van Buren and Lyon or the Metro Market on the corner of Juneau and Van Buren. The positions available are stock clerks and cashiers as well as deli and hot food employees. You apply on a computer in the store.

Target-Target has you apply on a computer in the store too.

Downtown Hotels-The Pfister, Hilton, Hyatt and Doubletree are all union hotels. They work with the Wisconsin Regional Training partnership to give you basic life skills if you are not working and need to brush up on skills before you begin working. The hotels are based on seniority, which allows you to bid on positions within the hotels. You may start out in banquets or housekeeping but can then bid up to the best paying jobs in the house-the bell persons and valet employees (the tips are very good).

Keep in mind that you will get hired sooner if you mark that you are available all hours and all days and all shifts on the application. After you are hired you can negotiate better hours or positions.

Please contact Debbie Timko for more information or if you need help with an application. 414-444-5610 ext. 104.

Quiet, Secure & Spacious!

What more could you want in a 1 bedroom apartment with a view? All Appliances are included. Tenant pays cooking gas and electric. Landlord pays heat. This is a must see! Units will go fast, so don’t wait. Call Lee today at 262-853-8137. Security deposit required.

JUSTICE BULLETIN BOARD

"Not everyone who says to me, 'Lord, Lord,' will enter the kingdom of heaven, but only the one who does the will of my Father in heaven." (Matthew 7:21)

The life and words of Jesus make it clear. We are not saved by ritual alone. We come each week to pray, to hear the word of God and to be in communion with each other, in order to be changed people. We come to know and live more fully the will of God that we care for each other, especially the least among us.

We are made in the image of a God who, in the person of Jesus, noticed and responded to the desperation of the sick, the poor, the stranger, and the broken. Just as a parent who focuses love and attention on one sick child but does not love the other children less, God invites us to focus our attention on those most in need.

Father Jon Sobrino writes that there are two classes of people in the world: rich and poor. The rich do not worry about whether they will eat tomorrow. The poor do. So we must accept that most of us are rich. Given our privileged status, how do we live out the command of Jesus to love especially those most in need?

- 1. It is important to be directly connected to the poor. We don't usually care a thing about the world's poor until we care about one poor person. So we must place ourselves where we can encounter the poor.
- 2. Ask questions and search for answers. After the first step, our face-to-face contact may stimulate an appetite for some kind of information or education.
- 3. Start to advocate. It is very important that we become advocates for the healing of the political and economic relationships and policies that are broken and that keep the poor, poor.
- 4. Work with the poor as they help themselves. This is what is called solidarity work. It's a mixture of the first three, and it involves working side by side with the poor as they negotiate the solutions to their own poverty.

5. Watch your money. A prayerful dedication to the poor will probably result in a simpler life, with fewer things and less preoccupation with money and possessions.

6. Give money. Remember to give a good bit of your money away. The early Christian definition of so-called disposable income is that it is the rightful possession of the poor. Like all things, the key is just to get started.

A preferential option for the poor simply reminds us who we are: a people who, when we are honest and awake, would do anything to end one another's suffering. (Taken from words of Jack Jezreel, the author of the JustFaith curriculum.)
