All Saints Catholic Church

Dear Sisters and Brothers,

In a little booklet called A Pastor's Guide to Whole Community Catechesis I found a wonderful Litany of the Saints that I want to share with you because it does summarize what I believe is the foundation of our Beloved Community. Here it is:

What are you?

Are you married with kids, worrying for them and committed to their welfare? Are you divorced? Are you married for the second, or even the third time? Are you a single parent struggling to make ends meet? Are you gay or lesbian? Well, if you are, then you belong to us because you belong to Christ! All are welcome in this place.

Are you lonely? Are you a widow or widower? Are you a single man or woman who would prefer to have a spouse? Are you disabled or disfigured? Does your life seem flat? Is your faith on a slowdown? Well, if you are, then you belong to us because you belong to Christ! All are welcome in this place.

Are you struggling financially? Have you been laid off? Out of work because of downsizing? Does it seem like you can never quite get it all together? Well, if so, then you belong to us because you belong to Christ! All are welcome in this place.

Are you struggling with questions about family planning? Have you been a victim of abuse or violence, of a crime? Are you a criminal who has been imprisoned? Do you have a past about which you feel ashamed? Are you homeless or hopeless? Well, if so, then you belong to us because you belong to Christ! All are welcome in this place.

Are you new here? An immigrant maybe? Are you from another Christian tradition? Are you full of doubt today? Are you fearful like the disciples were? Has it been a while since you came into a church? None of this matters. You belong to us because you belong to Christ! All are welcome in the place.

When I read our beautiful Mission Statement, which you can find on the bulletin cover, I see the vision that is laid out in the litany above. We are a Beloved Community and our vision is all-inclusive—Here comes everybody!

Faithfully,

F. Carl Diederichs

A PROJECT OF THE CHURCH OF THE SAVIOUR

The Ministry of Holding One's Tongue

It must be a decisive rule of every Christian fellowship that each individual is prohibited from saying much that occurs to him....

Where this discipline of the tongue is practiced right from the beginning, each individual will make a matchless discovery. He will be able to cease from constantly scrutinizing the other person, judging him, condemning him.... Now he can allow the brother to exist as a completely free person, as God made him to be.

Now the other person, in the freedom with which he was created, becomes the occasion of joy, whereas before he was only a nuisance and an affliction. God does not will that I should fashion the other person according to the image that seems good to me, that is, in my own image; rather in his very freedom from me, God made this person in His image. I can never know beforehand how God's image should appear in others.

Dietrich Bonhoeffer

Unity in Christ Fund

Please consider giving 10% of your economic stimulus check to the Unity in Christ Fund. The checks will be out soon. The money was not expected in the family income and budgets. It's a wonderful way to contribute if you have not yet pledged and a way to reach your goal if you have already pledged but have not yet completed the pledge fulfillment.

"WE ARE ALL SAINTS!" AFTER SCHOOL SUMMER TUTORING PROGRAM:

During the summer on Thursdays from 4 pm - 5:30 pm, All Saints will host an after school tutoring program for all students ages 6 - 18. Starting June 12, the program will provide students with a staff of professional teachers and high school students from St. Francis Borgia Parish in Cedarburg to help with any subject that might need some fine tuning before the start of the new school year. It is the hope of the community that once the program takes off, we can offer students a diverse list of fun activities in addition to tutoring. Some ideas include music, creating art, writing workshops, reading groups, and discussing politics or other important social issues. If you have any other ideas about additional activities we could try and implement into the program, please don't hesitate to bring them to the table! Each activity would be tailored as much as possible to the particular age, ability, and desire of each and every student in the program. Encourage all grade schoolers and high schoolers you know to get involved with this program. We would love for this to really take off, so that all of our children and teens this summer can proudly shout, "We are All Saints!"

Peace,

Bob Spoerl.

PRAYER FOR VICTIMS OF NATURAL DISASTERS

Compassionate Lord, we pray for those who have been devastated by recent natural disasters. We remember those who have lost their lives so suddenly. We hold in our hearts the families forever changed by grief and loss. Bring them consolation and comfort. Surround them with our prayers for strength. Bless those who have survived and heal their memories of trauma and devastation. May they have the courage to face the long road of rebuilding ahead. We ask your blessing on all those who have lost their homes, their livelihoods, their security and their hope. Bless the work of relief agencies and those providing emergency assistance. May their work be guided by the grace and strength that comes from You alone. Help us to respond with generosity in prayer, in assistance, in aid to the best of our abilities. Keep our hearts focused on the needs of those affected, even after the crisis is over. We ask this in Jesus' name.

Amen

QUOTABLE

I love Abraham, that old weather-beaten unwavering nomad; when God called to him no tender hand wedged time into his stay. His faith erupted him into a way far-off and strange. How many miles are there from Ur to Haran? Where does Canaan lie or slow mysterious Egypt sit and wait? How could he think his aged thigh would bear nations or how consent that Isaac die, without an answer, much less an ado? I think, alas, how I manipulate dates and decisions, pull apart the dark, dally with doubts here and with counsel there, take out old maps and stare. Was there a call at all, my fears remark. I cry out: Abraham, old nomad you. Are you my father? Come to me in pity. Mine is a far and lonely journey, too.

JUSTICE BULLETIN BOARD

"Not everyone who says to me, 'Lord, Lord,' will enter the kingdom of heaven, but only the one who does the will of my Father in heaven." (Matthew 7:21)

The life and words of Jesus make it clear. We are not saved by ritual alone. We come each week to pray, to hear the word of God and to be in communion with each other, in order to be changed people. We come to know and live more fully the will of God that we care for each other, especially the least among us.

We are made in the image of a God who, in the person of Jesus, noticed and responded to the desperation of the sick, the poor, the stranger, and the broken. Just as a parent who focuses love and attention on one sick child but does not love the other children less, God invites us to focus our attention on those most in need.

Father Jon Sobrino writes that there are two classes of people in the world: rich and poor. The rich do not worry about whether they will eat tomorrow. The poor do. So we must accept that most of us are rich. Given our privileged status, how do we live out the command of Jesus to love especially those most in need?

- 1. It is important to be directly connected to the poor. We don't usually care a thing about the world's poor until we care about one poor person. So we must place ourselves where we can encounter the poor.
- 2. Ask questions and search for answers. After the first step, our face-to-face contact may stimulate an appetite for some kind of information or education.
- 3. Start to advocate. It is very important that we become advocates for the healing of the political and economic relationships and policies that are broken and that keep the poor, poor.
- 4. Work with the poor as they help themselves. This is what is called solidarity work. It's a mixture of the first three, and it involves working side by side with the poor as they negotiate the solutions to their own poverty.

5. Watch your money. A prayerful dedication to the poor will probably result in a simpler life, with fewer things and less preoccupation with money and possessions.

6. Give money. Remember to give a good bit of your money away. The early Christian definition of so-called disposable income is that it is the rightful possession of the poor. Like all things, the key is just to get started.

A preferential option for the poor simply reminds us who we are: a people who, when we are honest and awake, would do anything to end one another's suffering. (Taken from words of Jack Jezreel, the author of the JustFaith curriculum.)
